

Bible Reading for the Week of November 23, 2025

Monday, November 24 – Ephesians 5:15-21

How do believers in the post-apostolic era "understand what the will of the Lord is" (vs. 17)? In what way does the Bible contain the will of the Lord for the life of His people? Thank the Lord today for the provision of His Word to guide you in your life.

Tuesday, November 25 – Ephesians 5:15-21

In verse 19, the apostle Paul describes one of the ways that we are filled with the Spirit. How does singing praises unto the Lord both honor Him and edify the body of Christ? Pray to the Lord today that He would grant you to be filled with the Spirit more and more.

Wednesday, November 26 – Ephesians 5:15-21

Paul concludes this section with two final commands. Why should thankfulness be a constant feature of the Christian life? What does it look like for the church to submit to one another? Take time today to give thanks to the Lord for the ways He is working in your life.

Thursday, November 27 – Psalm 51:1-19

What do we learn from David saying in verse 4 that his sin was against God? How does this shape the way we think about sin that occurs in our own lives? Ask the Lord to help you see your own sin, so that you might confess it unto Him.

Friday, November 28 – 2 Samuel 11:1-27

Today's passage describes the historical background to Psalm 51. Why is it significant that David was still at home during the time when kings go out to battle (see vs. 1)? How did David's initial sin of lust lead to even more heinous sin later on? Take time today to pray to the Lord that He would keep you from all evil.

Saturday, November 29 – Psalm 51:1-19

What is one way the Lord used David's sinful actions for the good of the people of God, according to verse 13? Can you think of ways in which your past sins may give you an opportunity to encourage the next generation toward paths of righteousness? Pray that the Lord would open your eyes to see the greatness of your sin, but also the glorious grace of Jesus Christ to forgive sins.
